

Community Liaison Committee Membership Application

This is an application form for membership on the Kelly Cove Salmon Ltd. Community Liaison Committee (CLC) in Liverpool, N.S.

Members of the CLC will be volunteers, drawn from people who live, work and play in the area. Ideally, they will be people who are active in local organizations (stakeholder groups) which represent interest that could potentially be impacted by local aquaculture organizations. Some examples include recreation, business, environment, tourism and Aboriginal Community interests.

CLC members will represent the interests of people in their stakeholder groups and in their community networks. They will also take on a role of communicating the work of the CLC to their contacts.

Kelly Cove is committed to working with the CLC to set meeting schedules and develop Charters and Terms of Reference that will facilitate relationship building and information sharing.
